

70-81 Camaro Window Felts With or without Chrome Moldings

1970-1981 Camaros were available with the Style Trim Group which was RPO code Z21. Part of this package included a 1" molding on the top of the door extending all the way to the end of the door to meet up with the fender molding. To choose the correct window felt, compare your car to the pictures below.

Picture A shows a second generation Camaro without chrome moldings:

Picture B shows a second generation Camaro without chrome moldings. Notice the window felt bead stops under the A pillar:

Picture C shows a second generation Camaro with chrome moldings:

Picture D shows a second generation with chrome moldings. Notice the chrome molding extends under the A pillar to the end of the door to meet up with the fender molding:

